

ABOUT THE RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION OF MARYLAND (RAM)

The Restaurant Association of Maryland (RAM) is a statewide trade organization with nearly 3,000 members and is the most trusted source for restaurant advocacy, regulatory compliance information, food service employee training, and restaurant-focused vendors.

Achieving profitability in the state of Maryland can be a challenge. Business costs are rising, and new regulations always seem to be on the horizon. As such, the Restaurant Association of Maryland is here to advocate for your interests at the state and local government levels, promote your business through unique culinary events and partnerships, and connect you with like-minded industry professionals.

Membership benefits include, however are not limited to,

- Government Alerts & Advocacy
- Discounted Food Courses and Certifications
- Creative and Customized Marketing Services
- Vendor Savings Programs
- Local Events and Networking

When you join RAM, you automatically become a member of the National Restaurant Association at no extra cost. The National Restaurant Association (NRA) provides access to all of its national resources and expertise to give you more information to help your business succeed.
